

SCHEDULE FOR LITTLE BERKS in CAMBRIDGE, MA, June 7-9, 2019
 Radcliffe Institute, Radcliffe Yard, 10 Garden Street, Knafel Center

Welcome to the Little Berks! This document has all the events going on this weekend. You are welcome to attend them all, or not, as you like.

A note for newcomers: Most folks dress up for dinner at the Little Berks. You should decide what that means to you, but don't be surprised if you see some super dandy ties or some beautiful dresses.

A note for all: Irving House is about an .8 mile walk to Radcliffe. Please bring shoes you can walk in. There is no shuttle between locations, but you can also easily get a taxi/lyft between the venues, if need be.

Since you are all members of the Berks, we encourage everyone to attend the Business Meeting on Saturday afternoon. It is an informational and working meeting, and provides a great opportunity to get to know the organization and what we work on together.

Friday 3pm-6pm	Arrival –Irving House is the “conference” hotel for the Little Berks. People on the Program Committee are staying at the Harvard Square Hotel (110 Mount Auburn St, Cambridge, MA 02138). Many people are staying locally with friends or at home.	Irving House 24 Irving Street Cambridge, Massachusetts USA, 02138 617-547-4600
6-7:15pm	Sadada Jackson, Land Acknowledgement. (Sadada, a recent graduate of Harvard Divinity School with her MA in Theological Studies in Indigenous Traditions, is a member of the Natick Nipmuc tribe.) Mary McNeil (American Studies graduate student, Harvard University) introduces Kendra Field (Associate Professor of History, Tufts University), “Things to be Forgotten’: Time, Place, and Silence in African American Family Histories”	Radcliffe Institute (Knafel Center, Radcliffe Gym) 10 Garden Street Cambridge, MA 02138

7:30-9	Dinner	Radcliffe (Knafel Center, Gym)
post dinner	games/hang out time	Irving House and Harvard Sq. Hotel
Saturday
7-8am	Walk, if you like. Please make a plan at dinner Friday
7-10am	Breakfast at Irving House for people staying there.	Irving House
10-12pm	Digital Archiving and Oral History Workshop: Ellen Shea (Head of Research Services, Schlesinger Library); Kelly Anderson (Director, Archives Concentration, Smith College).	Radcliffe (Knafel Center, 105)
12-3pm	Free time -- Explore Cambridge, Lunch on your own.	Highlighted Tours/Exhibits: African American Trail Project (a collaborative project co-led by Kendra Field & Kerri Greenridge, Tufts) and The Visual Culture of Suffrage Exhibit at the Massachusetts Historical Society (curated by Allison Lange, Wentworth Institute of Technology)! Maps and postcards are available for both at registration.
3-5pm	Business Meeting	Radcliffe (Knafel Center, 105)
5-6pm	break time
6:00-7:15	Sadada Jackson: Land acknowledgement. Sarah Sadlier (History graduate student, Harvard University, Lakota) introduces Lisa Brooks (Professor of American Studies, Amherst College, Abenaki), “Reading the Archive of the Land.”	Radcliffe (Knafel Center, Gym)
7:30-9pm	Dinner reception	Radcliffe (Knafel Center, Gym)
Sunday
8-10am	Breakfast	Irving House
11-12pm	Departure	